I see nothing remotely humorous about this subject. You create this trash video using a few words of entire conversations and come on here TRYING to act like Johnny Cochran... SAD.. I mean honestly...do you ever have anything good to say about anything

Pursuant to Public Act 198 of 1982, the prohibition against retroactive modification of child support orders does not apply to ex parte interim or temporary ordered entered under MCR 3.206.

Income Withholding

Upon entry of this judgment, an Order of Income Withholding shall be entered immediately pursuant to Public Act 295 of 1982 and Public Act 219-297 of 1990, or any amendments thereto and payment of all support ordered in this Judgment shall be made pursuant to an Order of immediate income withholding issued by this Court while said child support payment continue to be made through the Macomb County Friend of the Court. Plaintiff and Defendant shall immediately notify the Macomb County Friend of the Court should either party have any change in his or her respective employment, a change of health insurance and/or benefits.

Spousal Support

Neither party shall be obligated to pay spousal support/alimony to the other and each party's claims with respect to spousal support are forever waived and barred. The parties waive any right, statutory, or otherwise from the other. The parties intend and agree that their respective waivers of spousal support, maintenance, or alimony pursuant to this provision are final, binding, and non-modifiable for any reason whatsoever, foreseen, or unforeseen, including a change of circumstances for either party and it is the intention of the parties to follow the case law of Staple v Staple, 241 Mich App 562 (2000). The parties each forever waive all of their rights under MCL 552.13 and MCL 552.28 to modify the spousal support provisions set forth in this Consent Judgment of Divorce. The parties intend, represent and warrant that neither party shall petition the Court to modify this provision.

Health Care Insurance and Expenses for the Parties

Each party shall be solely responsible for all her/his medical, dental health care premiums and all other health care expenses not covered or paid by such insurance that she or he may incur.

Property Settlement

Each party is awarded her/his personal effects, including clothing, jewelry and paperwork, household furnishings/contents, vehicle(s), bank accounts, under his/her control, free and clear of the other's interest.

Debts

...shall hold the other harmless and indemnify the other party from any liability in connection with those obligations. Neither party remaining balance on the joint credit card which was cancelled at the time of entry of Judgment. Each party warrants that except for debts specifically identified in this Consent Judgment of Divorce, neither has incurred any debt upon which the other may be liable.

Non-Dischargeability in Bankruptcy

The parties intend, and the Court specifically finds that the parties' respective assumption of debts and hold harmless obligations are for the support of the other party. Accordingly, those obligations are intended by the parties and this Court to be non-dischargeable in bankruptcy. If any of these obligations are discharged in bankruptcy, this Court retains jurisdiction to modify this Consent Judgment of Divorce as appropriate to effectuate the intent of the parties and this Court at the time of this Consent Judgment of Divorce and may award including but not limiting to an award of spousal support to that party who is forced to satisfy an obligation that was the responsibility of the other party.

Statutory Insurance Provision and Work-Related Benefits

Except as otherwise provided for by this Consent Judgment of Divorce, neither party shall have any rights as beneficiaries in and to the proceeds of any policy or contract of life insurance, endowment, or annuity upon the life of the other, such rights being extinguished as provided by statute. By signing this Consent Judgment of Divorce, each party waives their respective claims as beneficiary to the proceeds of any insurance policy upon which they may be named as beneficiary more than the amounts to which they are entitled pursuant to the provisions of this Judgment. This waiver shall apply even if each party fails to remove the other as beneficiary of other policies after the entry of this Consent Judgment of Divorce, in which case, the beneficiary will be the heirs/devisees of each party's estate to the extent that either party has not named another beneficiary. Each party acknowledges that notwithstanding the language of this clause, they have been advised by their respective counsel that under ERISA (Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974) the plan administrator must pay benefits to those designated in plan documents. This preempts contrary state laws that relate to such plans. Accordingly, the Federal District Court in the Eastern District has held plan documents control, notwithstanding any language in a Judgment of Divorce that cancels and complete disclosure of all their assets. If any substantial assets or liabilities are later discovered, the party failing to disclose or hiding such assets and/or liabilities, shall be subject to costs, sanctions, and attorney fees and that the matter shall be reopened relative to the newly discovered assets or liabilities. This agreement is based upon the representations of each party that he/she has disclosed all the assets and liabilities which may affect the other party. If, however, the existence of property was knowingly concealed or misrepresented by one of them, the parties agree to submit to the Court the right to determine whether such property will be awarded as the sole and separate property of the other or the manner in which it should be divided and whether the concealing party should be ordered to pay any reasonable costs and attorney fees resulting from such failure to disclose. Sands v. Sands, 442 Mich 30; 497 NW2d 493 (1993).

Waiver

Each of the parties waives and relinquishes all rights to act as personal representative in the estate of the other party. Except as may be otherwise stated in this Consent Judgment of Divorce, each of the parties will forever relinquish all right to inherit by intestate succession any of the property of which the other party may die seized or possessed. At that time, the estate of such deceased party shall descend to the heirs at law of such deceased party in the same manner as though the parties hereto had never been married unless the parties have by will provided otherwise and except as stated in the security provision of this Consent Judgment of Divorce.

Mutual Release

Except as specifically reserved in this Consent Judgment of Divorce, each of the parties releases and forever discharges the other of and from any cause of action, claim or demand that either may have against the other for any incident which may have occurred or act done or omitted to be done prior to the entry of this Consent Judgment of Divorce, whether that claim be founded in contract, tort or any other basis, except for fraud or misrepresentation in connection with the disclosure or transfer of assets in this divorce proceeding.

Conveyance of Property

each party shall sign whatever documents are necessary to effectuate the terms of this Consent Judgment of Divorce.

Constructive Trust

If, due to omission or commission by either party or the death or disability of either party prior to implementation and satisfaction of the entire terms of this Consent Judgment of Divorce, the other party does not receive an asset or other benefit that he or she was intended to receive under the terms of this Consent Judgment of Divorce, the person or entity that receives or holds that asset or benefit shall do so in a constructive trust for the benefit of the party who was the intended recipient of the asset or benefit under this Consent Judgment of Divorce. The parties intend that this clause be binding on their estate, heirs, and assigns.

Plaintiff/Attorney/Client Clause

Plaintiff, Enqui Osiris Khepr Sang Real, upon the date of entry of this Consent Judgment of Divorce, does hereby discharge and release his attorney, Ann M. Tobin-Levigne of Ann M. Tobin, P.C.

Defendant/Attorney/Client Clause

Defendant, Crystal Serrant-Duquesnay, upon the date of entry of this Consent Judgment of Divorce, does hereby discharge and release her attorney, Jeffrey Perlman.

Retention of Jurisdiction

This court shall retain jurisdiction until all the provisions of this Consent Judgment of Divorce have been satisfied.

Effective Date of Judgment

The Consent Judgment of Divorce shall become effective as of the date of its entry, except as otherwise provided in this Consent Judgment of Divorce.

Finality of Judgment

This Consent Judgment of Divorce is final on the date it is filed with and entered by the Court. As required by MCR 2.602(A) (3), this Consent Judgment of Divorce resolves the last pending claims between the parties as to spousal support and property division, and resolves, subject to the further order of the Court, the parties' last pending claims, excepting as to custody, parenting time and child support, which are subject to modification upon the further order of this Court, and as to the retention of jurisdiction to enforce the property division provisions (without modifying same) it closes this case.
